Report on the financial statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Campanile Foundation (a California State University Auxiliary Organization and Component Unit of San Diego State University) (the “Organization”), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2017 and 2016, and the related statements of activity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Organization's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Campanile Foundation as of June 30, 2017 and 2016, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other matters - supplementary information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information as required by the California State University on pages 25 – 39 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. Such supplementary information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures. These additional procedures included comparing and reconciling the information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other reporting required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report, dated September 20, 2017, on our consideration of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Organization's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

We have audited, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of The Campanile Foundation (a California State University Auxiliary Organization and Component Unit of San Diego State University) (the “Organization”), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated September 20, 2017.

Internal control over financial reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Organization’s internal control over financial reporting (“internal control”) to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization’s internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Entity’s financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in the Organization’s internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and other matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Organization's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Intended purpose

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2017 and 2016

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Organization

The Campanile Foundation (“TCF”) is an auxiliary organization of San Diego State University (the “University”), organized and operated in accordance with the Education Code of the State of California and the California Code of Regulations. TCF is a nonprofit corporation chartered to provide and augment programs that are an integral part of the educational mission of the University. TCF was organized in August 1999 to assist the University in the acquisition of gifts, the management of philanthropic gifts and the investment of certain endowment gifts. TCF began its operations on January 1, 2000.

Affiliated Organizations

TCF is related to other auxiliaries of the University, including Associated Students of San Diego State University (“Associated Students”), San Diego University Research Foundation (“SDSURF”) and Aztec Shops, Ltd. These auxiliaries and the University periodically provide various services for one another.

A Summary of TCF’s significant accounting policies is as follows:

Basis of Accounting and Reporting

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

TCF’s financial statements present net assets and contributions classified as unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted. These classifications are based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions related to contributions and are summarized as follows:

Unrestricted net assets

Unrestricted net assets consist of net assets that are neither permanently restricted nor temporarily restricted by donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets

Temporarily restricted net assets consist of unspent contributions that are subject to specific donor restrictions that can be fulfilled by actions of TCF or by the passage of time. These include unspent purpose-restricted expendable gifts, certain pledges payable in future periods, unspent time-restricted gifts and term endowments.

Permanently restricted net assets

Permanently restricted net assets consist of contributions made with donor-imposed stipulations that the funds be held in perpetuity. Generally, the income earned on such contributions is available for use by TCF for the benefit of the University. Also included in permanently restricted net assets are charitable remainder trusts (“CRT”), in which the income earned is included in permanently restricted net assets.

The Campanile Foundation

June 30, 2017 and 2016

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING

As stated above, the classification of net assets is based upon the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions on contributions. Net assets also include funds other than contributions that have been designated for specific purposes, which are classified as unrestricted in the financial statements.

Contributions, including unconditional promises to give (pledges), are recognized in the year the promise is made as opposed to when assets are received. Contributions with donor-imposed restrictions are reported as temporarily or permanently restricted contributions. Temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets at such time as TCF has fulfilled the donor-imposed restriction.

Permanently restricted net assets is reclassified to unrestricted net assets at such time that the donors consent to the release of the previous donor-imposed restriction.

Pledges that are expected to be collected within one year from the date of gift are recorded at their net realizable value. Pledges that are expected to be collected in future years are discounted to their estimated net present value (see Note 6).

Cash Equivalents

TCF considers all highly liquid investments with original maturity dates of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents have a zero balance as of June 30, 2017 and 2016. SDSURF handles cash management on behalf of TCF.

Investments

Investments are reported at fair value, with gains and losses included in the statements of activities. Short-term investments consist primarily of investment interest receivable.

Alternative assets consist of funds that utilize a variety of absolute return strategies. TCF had alternative assets of $30,347,067 and $25,662,766 at June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The real estate investment is in a real estate securities commingled fund. These investments are reported at the fair value of the shares owned in each fund.

Beneficial interest in trust investments are reported at the fair value of the underlying portfolio of investments within each trust, which primarily consist of mutual funds invested in equities, fixed income and real estate instruments.

Other Receivables, Net

Other receivables, net consist largely of funds made available to the University to be used for student loans. The University periodically assesses the loans for collectability. TCF has not experienced any significant losses on these loans and therefore has not recorded an allowance against these balances. The remaining balance is primarily the accrual of contributions that were dated prior to, but received after year-end.

Liabilities under Deferred Gift Agreements

TCF serves as trustee and administrator for various types of trust arrangements, including split-interest agreements, whereby the beneficial interest is shared with one or more parties. The arrangements generally require payment of annual trust income to the income beneficiary or beneficiaries over the term of the trust, with the remainderman portion of the assets reverting to TCF. The liability under deferred gift agreements on the statements of financial position represents the present value of the estimated future payments to be distributed to these beneficiaries over the life expectancies of the beneficiaries, as derived using actuarial tables. TCF uses the approved Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) rate specific to each trust to discount the estimated future payments to be distributed to the beneficiaries.

During the year ended June 30, 2015 TCF was granted its Certificate of Authority by the California Department of Insurance to hold Charitable Gift Annuity (CGA) assets on its books for the first time. The SDSU Research Foundation previously held CGA assets destined for TCF on its books until TCF obtained its CGA license and this amount was part of the due from affiliate line item on TCF’s statements of financial position. The CGA asset value totaled $1,080,637 and $1,102,623 for the years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Changes in the liability under deferred gift agreements are included in contributions in the accompanying statements of activities and totaled $311,054 and ($3,211) for the years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing various programs, fundraising and other activities have been summarized in the statements of activities. Fundraising costs incurred that benefit the different programs across the University are gathered and combined with the central fundraising costs to determine the total fundraising expense. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated between expense categories based on the program or activity benefiting.

Income Taxes

TCF is a qualified nonprofit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. This exemption is for all income taxes except those assessed on unrelated business taxable income (“UBIT”), if any. In order to maintain that status, TCF is precluded from making certain expenditures, principally in support of political parties. Management believes that no such expenditures have been made. TCF is not a private foundation.

TCF adopted accounting guidance relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which is primarily codified in the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 740. TCF files a Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax) annually. When these returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the tax position taken or the amount of the position that would ultimately be sustained. Examples of tax positions common to TCF include such matters as the tax-exempt status of the entity and various positions relative to potential sources of UBIT. UBIT is reported on Form 990, as appropriate. The benefit of tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolutions of appeals or litigation processes, if any.

Tax positions are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50 percent likely to be realized on settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above is reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying statements of financial position, along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. TCF has addressed uncertainty in its income tax position under the guidance, and there are no unrecognized/derecognized tax benefits that require an accrual.

Form 990 filed by TCF is subject to examination by the IRS up to three years from the extended due date of each return. Management believes Form 990 has been filed appropriately. Form 990 filed by TCF is no longer subject to examination for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2012 and prior.

Form 199 filed by TCF is subject to examination by the California Franchise Tax Board up to four years from the extended due date of each return. Management believes Form 199 has been filed appropriately. Form 199 filed by TCF is no longer subject to examination for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2011 and prior.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amount reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Significant estimates include the discount rates on pledges receivable, the note receivable and unitrust liabilities, the life expectancy of annuitants of unitrusts, the collectability of pledges receivables and the fair values of alternative investments in hedge funds. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent Accounting Pronouncement

In May 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2015-07, Disclosures for Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or its Equivalent). The guidance specifically clarifies how investments valued using the net asset value (NAV) practical expedient within the fair value hierarchy should be classified. The ASU was issued in order to address diversity in practice. The amended standard’s key position exempts investments measured using the NAV practical expedient from categorization within the fair value hierarchy and related disclosures. The new guidance is effective for the year ending June 30, 2018, with early adoption permitted. TCF is in the process of evaluating the impact of this standard on its operations.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-14, Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. The guidance is intended to simplify and improve how a not-for-profit organization (NFP) classifies its net assets, as well as the information it presents in its financial statements about its liquidity, financial performance and cash flows. The new guidance is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. TCF is in the process of evaluating the impact of this standard on its operations.

NOTE 2 – OPERATING AGREEMENT

TCF has an operating agreement with SDSURF to receive certain administrative services, including cash management processes, gift account administration, and accounting and financial reporting assistance. SDSURF receives an administrative fee when TCF funds are expended and at year-end an additional administrative fee is assessed to TCF Operations to meet the agreed upon annual fee. The due from affiliate asset represents the status of that relationship as of June 30, 2017 and 2016 in terms of balances held by SDSURF that are being managed on behalf of TCF. The original agreement expired in December 2001 and was renewed thereafter on an annual basis. In June 2014, TCF agreed to extend the agreement for three years through June 30, 2017.

The balance of due from affiliate as of June 30, 2017 represents $(4,565,239) held for campus programs, $10,131,444 for student aid and $2,811,682 for endowments.

The balance of due from affiliate as of June 30, 2016 represents ($3,350,674) held for campus programs, $9,139,464 for student aid and $902,460 for endowments.

During the years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 TCF transferred $5,582,557 and $6,295,978, respectively, from its net assets to the University for scholarships.

At June 30, 2017 and 2016, scholarship funds held by TCF are committed to students for the following school year. However, qualifying events have not occurred to release the funds to the University for disbursement to the recipients.

NOTE 3 – RESTRICTIONS ON NET ASSETS - Continued

TCF's pooled endowment portfolio consists of over 760 individual donor-restricted funds established for a variety of purposes. As required by US GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board of Trustees (the "Board") to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

TCF's Board has interpreted the California Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act ("UPMIFA") as requiring the Board's goal, using prudent investment techniques, to be the preservation of the fair value of the original endowed gifts, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary.

In accordance with UPMIFA, an organization considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- The duration and preservation of the fund
- The purpose of the organization and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- General economic conditions
- The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- Other resources of the organization
- The investment policies of the organization

TCF's Board classified CRTs as permanently restricted net assets, based on donor's restrictions. A CRT is an arrangement in which a donor establishes and funds a trust with specified distributions to be made to a designed beneficiary or beneficiaries over the trust's term. Upon termination of the trust, TCF receives the assets remaining in the trust. TCF recognizes the contributions in the period in which the trust is established. In subsequent period, adjustments to permanently restricted net assets are made to reflect changes in the fair value, payments to beneficiaries and changes in actuarial assumptions during the term of the trust.

TCF's Board also classified as permanently restricted net assets the original value of gifts donated to a permanent endowment fund and the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until such time as appropriated for expenditure.

Endowment investments are made according to the Investment Policy Statement adopted by TCF's Board of Trustees. These guidelines provide for investments in equities, fixed income and other securities, with performance measured against appropriate indices. Outside parties are contracted by TCF for the purposes of providing investment management and consulting.

This investment policy and strategy is to emphasize total return – that is, the aggregate return from capital appreciation and dividend and interest income – in an attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Within this framework, specific investment objectives for endowment investments include liquidity, preservation of capital, preservation of purchasing power, and long-term growth of capital.

The investment policy establishes an achievable return objective through diversification of asset classes. The current long-term return objective is to produce, after investment expenses, a minimum annual compound total rate of return of 4 percent in excess of the rate of inflation. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, TCF relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are archived through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). TCF targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investment to achieve its long-term return objectives with prudent risk parameters.

Target asset allocation:

The asset allocation of TCF shall be reviewed at least quarterly by the Finance and Investment Committee to ensure that the target allocation is in compliance with the following guidelines:

Asset Class	Target Allocation	Minimum	Maximum
High yield fixed income	3%	0%	7%
U.S. Large cap equity	29%	21%	36%
U.S. Small/Mid cap equity	5%	1%	10%
International large	15%	10%	20%
Emerging markets	7%	4%	13%
Core fixed income	18%	13%	25%
SDSU loans	0%	0%	5%
Liquid alternative assets	10%	5%	15%
Real estate	7%	0%	13%
REIT's	0%	0%	5%
Commodities	3%	0%	7%
Cash	0%	0%	10%
U.S. Tips	3%	0%	7%

The assets mix policy and acceptable minimum and maximum ranges established by the Finance and Investment Committee, and approved by the Board, represent a long-term view. Rapid and significant market movements may cause the fund's actual asset mix to fall outside the policy range. Any such divergence should be of a short-term structure.

NOTE 3 – RESTRICTIONS ON NET ASSETS - Continued

Endowment distributions are performed in accordance with TCF’s Board Policy on Investments. For the fiscal years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, the Board’s adopted distribution rate was 4 percent of the endowment principal market value using a three-year moving average. However, in both fiscal years, in the event that the market value of a true endowment’s share of the pooled endowment portfolio falls below the original value of the gift, distributions are limited to certain reserves created from “reinvesting” dividend and interest income.

Amounts distributed from endowments per the Board’s policy are classified as temporarily restricted for a specific purpose on the statements of financial position. Purpose restrictions generally include student aid, faculty and program excellence.

The composition of donor-restricted endowment funds is as follows:

Funds with Deficiencies

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires TCF to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with US GAAP, deficiencies of this nature are charged to unrestricted net assets and amounted to $0 and $460,474 as of June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The deficiency for 2016 was a result of unfavorable market returns. The gains are allocated to unrestricted net assets until the deficiency is restored, as was the case for the year ended June 30, 2017.

NOTE 4 - INVESTMENTS

TCF has investments that include mutual funds and investment partnerships, and is therefore subject to concentrations of credit risk. Investments are made by investment managers engaged by TCF, and the investments are monitored for TCF by an investment advisor.

The investments of TCF are exposed to interest rate and market risk. Economic conditions can impact these risks and resulting market value can be either positively or adversely affected. If the level of risk increases in the near term, it is possible that the investment balances and the amounts reported in the financial statements could be materially affected by market fluctuations. Although the market value of investments is subject to fluctuations on a year-to-year basis, management believes the investment policy is prudent for the long-term welfare of TCF and its beneficiaries.

As of June 30, total investments consisted of the following:

	2017	2016
Large cap equity	$ 39,970,617	$ 30,723,930
Core fixed income	74,196,544	63,439,895

Other investments	207,604	207,429
	$ 299,288,179	$ 253,241,477

Deferred gifts are invested primarily in fixed income and low-risk equities with the long-term investment portfolio designed to minimize risk and maintain the ability to meet the payment obligations to the beneficiaries as determined in the gift agreements.

Effective July 1, 2007, TCF agreed to be the endowment pool manager for SDSURF. As of June 30, 2017 and 2016, SDSURF had (at fair value) $19,577,168 and $15,249,552, respectively, in the endowment pool. That amount is included in the long-term investments of TCF and the related liability is shown as due to SDSURF in the liabilities of TCF as stated on the statements of financial position.

NOTE 5 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Short-term investments, amounts due from affiliate, accrued liabilities and accounts payable approximate fair value due to the immediate short-term maturity of these financial instruments. Other receivables are carried at their net realizable value. The carrying amount of long-term pledges receivable and the note receivable are discounted to their estimated net present value, which approximates fair value. Investments are presented in the financial statements at fair value in accordance with US GAAP. Investments in securities traded on a national securities exchange, or reported on the NASDAQ national market, are stated at the last reported sales price on the day of valuation; other securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sales was reported on that date are stated at the last quoted bid price. Alternative investments, which consist of funds that utilize a variety of absolute return strategies, are reported at the fair value of the shares owned in each fund.

NOTE 5 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS - Continued

Investments in investment partnerships are valued at fair value based on the applicable percentage ownership of the underlying partnerships' net assets as of the measurement date, as determined by the general partner. In determining fair value, the general partner utilizes valuations provided by the underlying investment partnerships. The underlying investment partnership values securities and other financial instruments on a fair value basis of accounting. The estimated fair values of certain investments of the underlying investments partnerships, which may include private placements and other securities for which prices are not readily available, are determined by the general partner or sponsor of the respective investment partnership and may not reflect amounts that could be realized upon immediate sale, nor amounts that ultimately may be realized. Accordingly, the estimated fair values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market existed for these investments. The fair value of the partnership's investments in investment partnerships generally represents the amounts the partnership would expect to receive if it were to liquidate its investment in the investment partnerships, excluding any redemption charges that may apply.

Due to SDSURF is carried at the fair value of the related investments included in the pooled endowment funds.

The FASB's authoritative guidance on fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about fair value measurements. This guidance enables the reader of the financial statements to assess the inputs used to develop those measurements by establishing a hierarchy for ranking the quality and reliability of the information used to determinate fair values. Under this guidance, assets and liabilities carried at fair value must be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

- Level 1 - Observable inputs such as quoted market prices in active markets. Classifications currently include cash and investments in funds that are priced daily and trade over an active exchange such as the New York Stock Exchange.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than the quoted prices in active markets, which are observable either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions. Classifications currently include commingled funds that do not have daily pricing on an active exchange but where a substantial portion of a fund's fair value could be determined based on quoted market prices of underlying investments held by the fund and the estimated fair value of certain investments of the underlying investment partnership, which may include private placements and other securities for which prices are not readily available, and are determined by the general partner or sponsor of the respective other investment partnership and may not reflect amounts that could be realized upon immediate sale, nor amounts that ultimately may be realized.

NOTE 6 – PLEDGES RECEIVABLE

Contributions are recorded as revenue and as a pledge receivable when a donor makes an unconditional promise to give. Unconditional contributions expected to be received at the time of gift in more than a year's time are recorded at their expected net present values using discount rates commensurate within the risks involved. The rates used to discount pledges outstanding at June 30, 2017 and 2016 ranged from 2.01 percent to 5 percent. Pledges receivable are assessed periodically for collectability. The allowance for uncollectable pledge receivables was $646,151 and $468,240 as of June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Contributions pledged are expected to be collected as follows as of June 30:

NOTE 7 – NOTE RECEIVABLE

The note receivable originated during 2008 from a single donor in the amount of approximately $8.6 million, which consisted of the assignment of six promissory notes held by the donor and which were assigned to TCF in fulfillment of the donor's pledge. The original terms of the note were that it accrued interest at 4.35 percent per annum and matured in 2034. During 2014 a new note agreement was reached with the donor to alter terms to accrue interest at 2.40 percent per annum and to mature in 2036. The current note agreement requires annual payments of principal and interest of approximately $376,000, with a final payment of remaining principal and interest in 2036.

Principal payments due in the years ending June 30, :

2018	$	242,801
2019		248,628
2020		254,595
2021		260,705

Thereafter		4,285,294
Total principal due	$	5,558,985

NOTE 8 – AMOUNTS HELD ON BEHALF OF OTHERS

TCF administers service scholarship funds for the University where the recipient of the scholarship is pre-determined by the donor when the funds are donated to TCF. In accordance with US GAAP, these funds are held as a liability on the statements of financial position, as TCF has no variance power.

NOTE 9 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

TCF has evaluated subsequent events through September 20, 2017, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there were no subsequent events to recognize in these financial statements.
